

The Hague Institute
for Global Justice

INSTITUTE FOR ECONOMICS
& PEACE

THE HAGUE INSTITUTE FOR GLOBAL JUSTICE
& THE INSTITUTE FOR ECONOMICS & PEACE INVITE YOU TO

“COUNTERING TERRORISM IN A DATA-DRIVEN AGE”

Mr. Dick Schoof, National Coordinator for Security and Counter Terrorism in The Netherlands, will deliver a Distinguished Speaker Address. This is part of a public event to explore the contemporary challenges for counter terrorism in the Netherlands and in Europe and to reflect on the findings from the 2017 Global Terrorism Index. The Index will be presented by Mr. Daniel Hyslop, Research Director at IEP.

DATE: MONDAY 20 NOVEMBER 2017

TIME: 11:15-12:45, FOLLOWED BY COFFEE AND TEA UNTIL 13:15

LOCATION: 10 SOPHIALAAN, THE HAGUE

RSVP: events@economicsandpeace.org (by Monday 13th of November)

PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

Mr. Steven van Hoogstraten, CEO, The Hague Institute for Global Justice

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Mr. Dick Schoof, National Coordinator for Security and Counter Terrorism

PRESENTATION OF THE GLOBAL TERRORISM INDEX

Mr. Daniel Hyslop, Research Director, Institute for Economics & Peace

Q&A AND PANEL DEBATE

Mr. Dick Schoof and Mr. Daniel Hyslop on the ‘Role of Data and Countering Terrorism’ moderated by Talia Hagerty, Research Fellow, IEP

SPEAKERS

Mr. Dick Schoof has been the National Coordinator for Security and Counterterrorism since 1 March 2013. Security has been a central focus of his career. Previously, he was Director-General for the police, he set up the National Police at the Ministry of Security and Justice and he was Director-General for Public Safety and Security at the Ministry of the Interior and Kingdom Relations.

Mr. Daniel Hyslop is the Research Director at IEP where he coordinates research and manages the research team. An applied researcher focused on development studies, peace and conflict, and economics, he has led production of several years of the annual Global Peace Index report and several research projects on drivers and trends in peace and conflict and on the economics of conflict

INSTITUTE FOR ECONOMICS
& PEACE

+

VISION of HUMANITY

EXPLORE OUR WORK

WWW.VISIONOFHUMANITY.ORG

